

Raleigh HOG North Carolina 100 Guidelines

1. The objective is to visit all 100 North Carolina counties in a 12 calendar month period. A 12 calendar month period is defined to be the time between the first day of any given month to the last day of the same month a year later.
2. The program is open only to Raleigh HOG members.
3. Participants must register prior to logging visits to counties
4. Participants are required to maintain a log of counties visited. The log is included with this document.
5. Log is to be signed and turned in with documented visits to all 100 North Carolina counties.
6. Visits to a county can be documented either of two ways:
 - a. A fellow Raleigh HOG member who also visited the county on a motorcycle with the participant can act as a witness and sign the log for the county visited,
 - b. Participant can take a picture. Picture must include participant, any unique county landmark and participant's motorcycle in the photo.
7. Ride leaders are encouraged to provide ride participants with a list of counties included in the ride.
